Brilliant Wedding for Miss Sparks and Mr. Burton

Large Assemblage Witnesses
Ceremony in Christ Church at Oyster Bay.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 5.—Before a large assemblage in Christ Episcopal Church this afternoon, Miss Amy Ashley Sparks, daughter of Sir Ashley and Lady Sparks, was married to Mr. Van Duser Burton, son of Frank V. Burton of New York. The church, of which the bride's father is a vestryman, was a bower of evergreens, palms and white flowers. The music was given by the full choir of St. James' Church, Madison Avenue, New York, with Mr. Richards, the organist, at the organ.

There were three clergymen, Archdeacon Spurr of West Virginia; the Rev. Dr. W. G. Thayer, head master of St. Mark's School, Smithtown, Mass., where the bridegroom was educated, and the Rev. George E. Talmage, rector of Christ Church. Many guests came by special train from New York. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin and rare old lace. The veil was of lace, caught with orange buds, orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Burton, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Eleanor Sparks, younger sister of the bride, Katherine Hyde, Jane Hurd, Marion Fabry Hodeland, Lillian Bostwick. Their gowns were of organdie, in peach and orchid tones. Their hats were of similar colors and their bouquets yellow roses and larkspur.

Mr. Frank V. Burton, Jr., was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Messrs. Raymond Chavener, Walter E. Eaton, Henry Harper, Jr., John D. Cummings, Charles J. Coulter and Sidney Howard. The ceremony was followed by a large reception at Northaven, the country home of the bride's parents at Syosset. Mr. and Mrs. Burton have taken a house there for the summer.

The bride made her debut in December. She was educated at Brearley School and Holyoke Hall, and is a member of this year's Junior League. Mr. Burton served for three years in the French army as Lieutenant, and received the Cross de Guerre and Medaille Militaire.

Mr. Burton and his bride will spend part of their honeymoon in Canada before occupying their home at Syosset.

Walker—Partridge.

Miss Margaret Huntington Partridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason H. Partridge, was married yesterday in Grace Church by the Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slater, the rector, to Mr. Henry Edmund Walker, son of Mr. Richard L. Walker of Brooklyn.
